Need for decent housing

Believing in a world where everyone has a decent place to live, Habitat East Polk is looking for applicants who are in need of decent, affordable housing. That need for housing is determined by evaluating factors both physical (current housing circumstances) and financial (meeting income limitations and requirements).

Current income requirements are in the chart to the right. Please note that these numbers are based on HUD area median income figures for Polk County, FL and are subject to change at any time, according to market conditions and periodic updates.

Ability to Pay an affordable mortgage

The Habitat Homeownership Program is a pathway to purchasing your own home. Habitat provides affordable financing options and may subsidize the home purchase, but successful applicants have the ability to manage personal finances and are able to repay an affordable mortgage loan. To make that determination, we'll review your credit report, employment history, income, expenses, and debt.

Here are some key points to consider:

- We will verify at least two years of income through tax returns, pay stubs, and/or bank records.
- Current debt and monthly expenses will be verified through credit reports and bank statements.
- Applicants should show an ability to manage payments and personal finances for at least two years.
- There should be no outstanding judgments or open lawsuits where the applicant will be personally liable.
- Bankruptcy, foreclosure, deed-in-lieu, and short sales within the last seven years will require additional documentation for consideration. If within the last two years, you may not qualify at this time.
- If you are currently delinquent or in default on any loan obligation, we will require additional documentation in order to make a determination.
- Accepted homebuyers will be responsible for closing costs and a 1% downpayment at time of closing.
- To ensure stability of income and residency, US citizenship or permanent resident status is required.

Willingness to Partner to achieve your goals

Habitat partners with our homebuyers through what is known as "sweat equity", which is just a way of saying that our homeowners have earned equity in their new home through their own hard work and participation in the program. Sweat equity is designed to benefit the homebuyer through education and training, and it benefits our community by contributing to construction efforts on their own house or the houses of other Habitat homebuyers.

Our current sweat equity requirements are 200 hours per household prior to purchasing a Habitat home. Of those sweat equity hours, 100 must be provided through work on construction projects and/or hands-on training. Appropriate accommodations will be made for partners with physical limitations in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). The balance of sweat equity can be completed through educational and general volunteer opportunities.

While we do not have a local residency requirement to apply, proximity to our service area in East Polk County, FL will be considered as part of your ability to fulfill partnership requirements. Additionally, background checks and sex offender screening will be conducted in order to ensure the safety of Habitat East Polk volunteers and partners.

Process and next steps

If you feel the Habitat Homeownership Program is right for you, here are the next steps you should take:

- Attend an applicant information session at Habitat East Polk. While this is not required, the application process and program overview will be presented, and you'll be able to meet Habitat East Polk staff.
- Complete the attached application in full and provide any supplementary documents applicable. Instructions begin on the following page, including submission details.
- Start gathering personal financial information. Bank statements, pay stubs, tax returns, and other loan statements are a great place to start.
- Speak with a HUD housing counselor. They can advise you about financial readiness and discuss options for down payment assistance that may be available to you. Find one near you by visiting <https://answers.hud.gov/housingcounseling/> or by calling HUD at 800-569-4287 or 202-708-1455 (TTY).

After you've submitted your application to Habitat East Polk, expect that it will take some time to review. We will be in touch to let you know the status of your application or to request additional information. If we determine that a credit check is required, there will be a $50 fee per applicant in order to proceed.

Prior to acceptance of any applicant to the Habitat Homeownership Program, we will conduct a confidential home visit and interview with Habitat representatives. This part of the process is meant to document need for decent housing and to verify your reported current housing conditions.

If you are accepted for the Habitat Homeownership Program, you become a homebuyer partner with Habitat East Polk, and we'll meet with you to discuss the details of the partnership phase of your journey. Sweat equity, education, and preparation for underwriting your home loan will commence. Homebuyers are responsible for a downpayment of 1% of the appraised value of the home and all borrower closing costs. At the conclusion of that phase, you will have an affordable mortgage provided by Habitat East Polk. Homeowners are required to maintain insurance and make payments through our loan servicer Affiliate Mortgage Services.

At Habitat, we believe that everyone deserves a safe place to live because a stable home is the foundation for a healthy and fulfilling life. Each person has the right to live in a community where they feel safe, supported, and valued. Through shelter, we empower.

We are pledged to the letter and spirit of U.S. policy for the achievement of equal housing opportunity throughout the Nation. We encourage and support an affirmative advertising and marketing program in which there are no barriers to obtaining housing because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

"State" means any state, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or possession of the United States.

a Return Transcript, which includes most of the line items of a tax return as filed with the IRS. A tax return transcript does not reflect changes made to the account after the return is processed. Transcripts are only available for the following returns: Form 1040 series, Form 1065, Form 1120, Form 1120-A, Form 1120-H, Form 1120-L, and Form 1120S. b Account Transcript, which contains information on the financial status of the account, such as payments made on the account, penalty assessments, and adjustments made by you or the IRS after the return was filed. Return information is limited to items such as tax liability and estimated tax payments. Account transcripts are available for most returns. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

c Record of Account, which provides the most detailed information as it is a combination of the Return Transcript and the Account Transcript. Available for current year and 3 prior tax years. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

State or local information is not included with the Form W-2 information. The IRS may be able to provide this transcript information for up to 10 years. Information for the current year is generally not available until the year after it is filed with the IRS. For example, W-2 information for 2016, filed in 2017, will likely not be available from the IRS until 2018. If you need W-2 information for retirement purposes, you should contact the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

Caution: If you need a copy of Form W-2 or Form 1099, you should first contact the payer. To get a copy of the Form W-2 or Form 1099 filed with your return, you must use Form 4506 and request a copy of your return, which includes all attachments.

Future Developments

For the latest information about Form 4506-T and its instructions, go to www.irs.gov/form4506t. Information about any recent developments affecting Form 4506-T (such as legislation enacted after we released it) will be posted on that page.

General Instructions

Caution: Do not sign this form unless all applicable lines have been completed.

Note: If you are unsure of which type of transcript you need, request the Record of Account, as it provides the most detailed information.

Customer File Number. The transcripts provided by the IRS have been modified to protect taxpayers' privacy. Transcripts only display partial personal information, such as the last four digits of the taxpayer's Social Security Number. Full financial and tax information, such as wages and taxable income, are shown on the transcript.

An optional Customer File Number field is available to use when requesting a transcript. This number will print on the transcript. See Line 5 instructions for specific requirements. The customer file number is an optional field and not required.

Tip. Use Form 4506, Request for Copy of Tax Return, to request copies of tax returns.

Automated transcript request. You can quickly request transcripts by using our automated self-help service tools. Please visit us at IRS.gov and click on "Get a Tax Transcript..." under "Tools" or call 1-800-908-9946.

Where to file. Mail or fax Form 4506-T to the address below for the state you lived in, or the state your business was in, when that return was filed. There are two address charts: one for individual transcripts (Form 1040 series and Form W-2) and one for all other transcripts.

If you are requesting more than one transcript or other product and the chart shows two different addresses, send your request to the address based on the address of your most recent return.

Line 1b. Enter your employer identification number (EIN) if your request relates to a business return. Otherwise, enter the first social security number (SSN) or your individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN) shown on the return. For example, if you are requesting Form 1040 that includes Schedule C (Form 1040), enter your SSN.

Line 3. Enter your current address. If you use a P.O. box, include it on this line.

Line 4. Enter the address shown on the last return filed if different from the address entered on line 3.

Note: If the addresses on lines 3 and 4 are different and you have not changed your address with the IRS, file Form 8822, Change of Address. For a business address, file Form 8822-B, Change of Address or Responsible Party — Business.

Line 5. Enter up to 10 numeric characters to create a unique customer file number that will appear on the transcript. The customer file number should not contain an SSN. Completion of this line is not required.

Note. If you use an SSN, name or combination of both, we will not input the information and the customer file number will reflect a generic entry of "9999999999" on the transcript.

Line 6. Enter only one tax form number per request.

Signature and date. Form 4506-T must be signed and dated by the taxpayer listed on line 1a or 2a. The IRS must receive Form 4506-T within 120 days of the date signed by the taxpayer or it will be rejected. Ensure that all applicable lines are completed before signing.

Individuals. Transcripts of jointly filed tax returns may be furnished to either spouse. Only one signature is required. Sign Form 4506-T exactly as your name appeared on the original return. If you changed your name, also sign your current name.

Corporations. Generally, Form 4506-T can be signed by: (1) an officer having legal authority to bind the corporation, (2) any person designated by the board of directors or other governing body, or (3) any officer or employee on written request by any principal officer and attested to by the secretary or other officer. A bona fide shareholder of record owning 1 percent or more of the outstanding stock of the corporation may submit a Form 4506-T but must provide documentation to support the requester's right to receive the information.

Partnerships. Generally, Form 4506-T can be signed by any person who was a member of the partnership during any part of the tax period requested on line 9.

All others. See section 6103(e) if the taxpayer has died, is insolvent, is a dissolved corporation, or if a trustee, guardian, executor, receiver, or administrator is acting for the taxpayer.

Note: If you are Heir at law, Next of kin, or Beneficiary you must be able to establish a material interest in the estate or trust.

Documentation. For entities other than individuals, you must attach the authorization document. For example, this could be the letter from the principal officer authorizing an employee of the corporation or the letters testamentary authorizing an individual to act for an estate.

Signature by a representative. A representative can sign Form 4506-T for a taxpayer only if the taxpayer has specifically delegated this authority to the representative on Form 2848, line 5. The representative must attach Form 2848 showing the delegation to Form 4506-T.
